

Part-Time Jail Cook

A part-time position as a Jail Cook is available in the County of Elk, which is a great opportunity for anyone with a strong work ethic and reliability. The current wage $15.26 per hour.

In addition to working the 5 AM–1 PM or 10 AM–6 PM shift, the role would require approximately 28–32 hours per week, with the possibility of overtime. A candidate must also be available to work on weekends and holidays.

Among the duties will be preparing meals for prisoners in collaboration with other kitchen employees and keeping the kitchen clean and organized.

Use of a variety of kitchen and cooking equipment such as blenders, food choppers, mixers, grinders, slicers, knives, fryers, stoves, ovens, grills, microwaves, and steam tables; Duties also include cleaning and sanitizing of kitchen equipment, counters, and appliances.

Applications are available in the Commissioners' Office at 300 Center Street in Ridgway, Pennsylvania. They can also be accessed on the County's website, www.countyofelkpa.gov.

Elk County is an Equal Opportunity Employer (EOE).